

LODGING AND MEALS: Please provide one (1) No Smoking Hotel room(s) with two beds or a host home(s) with 2 beds for the length of the stay. Please provide all meals for the length of the stay. In an attempt to maintain our beautiful figures, we ask that healthy meals would be available during our stay. Please understand that we travel several days a week, and end up eating a lot of pizza. This does not have to be an expensive meal, healthy sandwiches would be fine.

TRAVEL: Sponsor will be responsible for 100% of travel from Pittsburgh PA, [additional if bringing in a second member of Righteous B]. Please remit payment upon receipt.

SOUND AND LIGHTS: Please provide the following sound equipment for the show. A quality three-way speaker system able to reach 115 decibels. One acoustic guitar with onboard electronics, three quality vocal microphones (preferably Shure 58), 2 Direct Input boxes, 2-3 quality monitors, a table for the dj equipment (preferably a rectangular 4 foot table), a quality mixing board with at least 5 or more input channels available, and a sound engineer to set up, direct sound check, and call the show. Professional lighting is optional, however it is a plus. (Please make sure that all the appropriate cables are with the gear.) If you have any questions please call.

MERCHANDISE: Please provide a table and two volunteers to sell merchandise during the event. The sponsor and the sponsoring organization agrees to let Righteous B sell merchandise royalty free.

SOUND CHECK: Under normal circumstances, Righteous B will need a 20 minute sound check with the audio engineer beginning two hours before the performance. It is helpful to have the room cleared of participants at this time. ALSO, please provide a private room in which Righteous B can warm up before their performance.

WAIVER: The Righteous B Concert does involve people dancing and jumping around. By signing this document the Sponsor understands that kids dance and jump around during rap concerts and waives Righteous B ministries of responsibility for injury and damage to property that may occur during the presentation or any time during the event.

CANCELLATION: The ability for Righteous B to continue to minister depends upon your commitment to the performance scheduled. Because of the expenses incurred in preparing for this appearance, the deposit paid upon execution of this agreement is non-refundable. In the event of cancellation within ninety (90) days of the scheduled date, the Sponsor is responsible for the honorarium and any travel expenses incurred at the time of cancellation. Full payment of the honorarium (less deposit) and any travel expenses incurred is required immediately upon cancelation. This agreement is entered into in the spirit of Christianity for the purpose of establishing good communication and mutual understanding regarding the personal appearance of Righteous B Ministries. The Sponsor's signature below acknowledges that she/he is in agreement with the provisions of this letter.
